Grooming goes Green

1. ORGANIC GROOMING

Free of dyes and harsh synthetics, Organic Grooming Herban Cowboy body soap is not only milled, it is 100% vegan. This soap feeds the skin topically with an organic vegetable oil base blended with cucumber, kaolin and deodorizing rosemary. Under $10. At Whole Foods or www.organic-grooming.com

2. SWEET OFFERINGS

From Ola Hawaii, pure, fresh, organic skin care products using natural ingredients found in the 50th state. Ola's Exotic Cane Sugar Scrub soothes and softens the skin with an exfoliant of Hawaiian Turbinto cane sugar. $25. Log on to www.hawaiianbodyproducts.com

3. BAMBOO BRUSHES

Ergonomically designed handles of bamboo, a 100% renewable resource, Healthy Hair Ionic Thermal Hair Brushes are lightweight and more durable than those made of hardwoods. Bristles are anti-static and ionic charged. In five sizes from $9.95 to $19.95. Leading hair salons worldwide or www.olviagarden.com

4. SIMPLICITY EMBRACES SUNSHINE

Comodynes Self-tanning and Exfoliating Towelettes use an all-natural cloth with a sugar-based tanning formula. Imported from Barcelona, Spain, Comodynes are favorites of stars like Jennifer Aniston and Christina Applegate. Simply apply and recycle. $14.99 for a package of eight individually wrapped towelettes. Available at www.comodynes.net.

5. SCENT AND SENSIBILITY

Does anyone combine scent with sensibility better than Archipelago? One AB Home Room Natural Diffuser releases your choice of 27 fragrances for months. Plus its clean design using natural reeds provides a decorative element to the home or office. Archipelago candles are more than 50-percent natural soy. Diffuser $60; candles $30. At Nordstrom's and green spas worldwide or www.archipelago-usa.com

6. H2O RULES

Water? Yes, water remains the ultimate health and beauty aid. Do as chi-chi spas do, add fruits or veggies to create your own flavor—a spear of pineapple core, slices of cucumber, or a combination of lemon and lime wedges to detoxify and refresh. Indulge in filtered tap water—in a favorite glass or decanted in a sustainable water bottle of your choice.
